POETRY.

The dawn is coming fast.
And when glad herald voices, Shall tell us peace has come, This thought shall most rejoice us, "Our boys are coming home !"

Soon shall the voice of singing Drown war's tremendous din Soon shall the joy-bells ringing Bring peace and freedom in; The jubilee bonfires burning, Shall soon light up the dome, And soon to soothe our yearning Our boys are coming home.

The vacant fireside places

Have waited for them long, The love-light lacks their faces The chorus waits their song; The long deserted room,

But now our prayers are granted. Our boys are coming home ! O mother, calmly waiting For that beloved son O sister, proudly dating The victories he has won !

O'maiden, softly humming The love song while you roam-Joy, joy, the boys are coming-Our boys are coming home And yet-oh, keenest sorrow

They're coming, but not all; Full many a dark to-morrow. Shall wear its sable pall; For thousands who are sleeping Beneath the empurpled loam; Woe' woe! for those we're weeping,

Who never will come home ! O sad heart, hush thy grieving; Wait but a little while ! With hoping and believing

Thy woe and fear beguite ;

Wait for the joyous meeting

Beyond the starry dome, For there our boys are waiting

To bid us welcome home.

Our Abolition neighbort are again full of trouble and much incensed, in fact we may say downright "mad" at Geno. al Sherman for the course he has pursue in offering such singularly liberal terms to the rebed General Johnston. They not only berate him soundly, but in their anger, they accuse him of being "drunk" or "crayy" when he offered such conditions, and some are not alow to cast abroad the suspicion that he might have been influenced in it so far as to open a door through which Jeff. Davis and other leading rebels might escape from the country. Considering that these Abolitionists, not long since, in the most dogmatic language apmounced that Grant and Sherman were the only "Peace Makers," it Sherman were the only "Peace Makers," it is somewhat surprising to see them chan re front so suddenly and show such marked displeasure towards their former favorites. displeasure towards their former layorites. They assolied General Grant for during to offer the terms he did to Gen. Lee and his army; at first in low murinurs of disapproval, then in denunciation, until they were suddenly brought to order and quiet submission on the layer that Grant and quiet submission on the layer that Grant and the submission on the layer that the submission of the layer that the submission on the layer that the submission of the layer than the submission of the layer t mission on finding that Grant was sustained in his course by President Lincoln. But, now again, we have the other "Peace Mu-ker" disappointing them. The terms of peace do not satisfy them. They do nounce Sherman in abusive words. The Albany Express, one of the most decided Republican papers in the country, administers a timely rebuke to the speakers cited Republican papers in the country, administers a timely rebuke to the speakers—principally of the clergy, professed followers of the meek and lowly Saviour!—whose comments upon the murdor of the Haddent are made up of loud and inothe entrayings for vengeance. Alluding to their blood-thirsty declarations that there shall be no more mercy toward the South, the Express says: "If there is to be no more mercy," then it is time to pull down our pulpits and to build up platforms for the gallows, to quirtuple our prison houses, to change half our asylums and hospitals into jails and dungoons. 'No more mercy!' Then in vain the Son of God said upon the cross, 'Father forgive them for they know not what they do,' and in vain God Himself declared, 'Vengeance is mine, I will repay.' No more mercy! Then let every offender against God, man and country, receive an eye for an eye, and a touth for a tooth. e for an eye, and a touth for a tooth. States and courts, judges and parents, princes and masters, on this plea will unsheathe the sword and strike at all who depart never so much from the strict law of duty. Thank God, this is not the senti-ment of a Curistian patriotic people. He does not of wisdom and statesmanship not at all ex-pected. He owes his success in political life to his own talent and energy, and it is, therefore, idle to assume that he is a weak man. He has bitherto maintained himself wherever placed with success. If he did last, it may have been an accident that will never occur again. He has been charged with a good deal in Tennessee that shows no regard for Constitutions or laws; but there is no telling for how much of it he was really responsible.

Certainly he showed a good deal of political courage and self-reliance at the outset of the rebellion. If had been as ultra Southern as the most fanatical, but when it came to disunion, he stopped short, and resisted, in spite of all sectional solicitations. In this he showed a degree of courage and independence that failed in others.

We shall be disappointed, however, if he is not found an ultra partisan in his own way, not much disposed to allow that his opponents have any right; that he is bound to respect. He will make a pretty good higher law and manifest destiny man, if the higher law and manifest destiny will go his way. If they do not, he will make battle with them, as he did with disunion. do not believe that Johnson will be much controlled by events, unless events suit him There was a time when events, if he were governed by selfish ambition entirely, pointed a way he refused to go. He was subjec-ted to a trial that his predecessor never felt, and that his supporters never were subjected to. They have floated along with the current of sectional passion, which Johnson had to resist. They had better not try to push him where he doesn't chose to go; for if he does'nt belie his record, he has a will of his own. He may be directed, but is not likely to be led or driven. The most danger is, that he will not feel much forbearance for those who oppose, for with chason they are certainly wrong.

Tan peculiar taint or call SCROFULA lurks multitudes of men. It either produces or is produced by an en-feebled, vitiated state that fluid becomes incompetent to sustain the vital forces in their rigorous action, and leaves the system to decay. The scrofulous contamination is va-riously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered digestion from unhealthy impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers poon their children." The diseases it originates take various names, according to the organs it attacks. In the lungs, Scrofula produces increles, and finally Consumption; in the glands, swellings which suppurate and become ulcerous sores; in the stomach and bowels, derai, rements which produce indigestion, dyspeps a, and liver complaints; on the skin, eruptive and cutantous affections. These, all having the same remedy, viz., purificate, and invigoration of the blood. Purify the blood, and these dangerous distempers leave vot. With these dangerous distempers leave you. With healthy, you cannot have scrofulous disease.

rior to any other remedy yet devised, is known by all who have given it a trial. That it does combine virtues truly extraordinary in their effect upon this class of complaints, is indisputably proven by the great multitude of publicly known and remarkable cures it has made of the following diseases: King's Evil, or Glandular Swellings, Tumors, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches and Sores, tuberculous deposits in the lungs, White Swellings, Debility, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Syphilis and Syphilitic Infections, Mercurial Diseases. Female Weaknesses, and, indeed, the whole series of complaints that arise from impurity of the blood. Minute reports of individual cases may be found in AYER'S AVERICAN ALMANAC, which is furnished to the druggists for gratuitous distribution, wherein may be learned the directions for its use, and some of the remarkable cures which it has made when all other remedies had failed to afford relief. Those cases are purposely taken from all sections of the country, in order that every reader may have access to some one who can speak to him of its benefits from personal experience. Scrofula depresses the vital energies, and thus leaves its victims far more subject to discase and its fatal results than are healthy constitutions. Hence it tends to shorten, and does greatly shorten, the average duration of human life. The vast importance of these considerations has by many compounds of Sarsaparilla, that promised much and did nothing; but they will neither be deceived nor disappointed in this. Its virtues have been proven by abundant trial, and there remains no question of its surpassing excellence for the cure of the offlicting diseases it is intended to reach. Although under the same name, it is a very different medicine from any other which has been before the people, and is far more effeetual than any other which has ever been
